

Part I. Instructions for Attorneys

A civil cover sheet will be submitted to the Clerk of the Court with each civil complaint filed. The filing attorney will complete the form as follows:

Section 1. Plaintiffs - Defendants. Enter names (last, first middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is an agency of the United States Government please use the abbreviation for that agency as indicated in attachment A. If the agency is not listed, write out the name. If the plaintiff or defendant is a person within one of these agencies identify him by his official title and indicate agency.

Section 2. Attorneys. Enter firm name, address, and telephone number. Also enter name of attorney of record.

Section 3. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the six boxes.

1. Original Proceeding. This will cover most situations.
2. Removed from State Court. Proceedings initiated in the State Courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Sections 1441-1447 and under Title 50 U.S.C., Section 738. When the action is commenced by the filing of a petition for removal under one of these sections check this box.
3. Remanded from Appellate Court. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
4. Reinstated or Reopened. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
5. Transferred from Another District. Do not use this for within district transfers.
6. Multi-district Litigation. Use when a multi-district case is transferred in, Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1407. When this box is checked do not check (5) above.

Section 4. Basis of Jurisdiction. Place an "X" in one of the four boxes.

1. United States Plaintiff. This jurisdiction is based on Title 28 U.S.C., Sections 1345 and 1348. This includes suits by agencies and officers of the United States. This box should be checked in all cases where U. S. is the plaintiff.
2. United States Defendant. This jurisdiction is based on Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1346. This includes suits against agencies and officers of the United States. This box should be checked in all cases where U. S. is the defendant.
3. Federal Question. There are many statutes setting forth Federal rights and granting to the district courts jurisdiction to hear cases involving such rights. Many of these statutes are listed in attachment B.
4. Diversity of Citizenship. This jurisdiction is based on Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1332. Actions involving a Federal question, (3) above, should be classified as such even though there may also be diversity of citizenship. When the basis of jurisdiction is diversity of citizenship two more entries are required. These are on the residency of plaintiff and defendant. Place an "X" in the appropriate box in each column to indicate residence of principal party plaintiff and principal party defendant.

Section 5. Cause of Action. In this space cite the civil statute of the United States Code under which you are filing and write a brief description of the cause.

Section 6. Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount being demanded or indicate if other demand such as preliminary injunction.

Section 7. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23 F.R.Civ.P.

Section 8. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined be sure that your description of the cause of action in Section 5 above, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office of the United States Courts to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

Section 9. Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

A list of federal statutes and corresponding natures of suit is in attachment B.
